Dear Aaron,

Hello, this is Lead tooth fairy #12. I'm writing in regards to the five 5 teeth that were extracted in your mouth earlier this month. We had received a tip from your dentist office that you had your teeth removed. Unfortunately our scouts were not able to find them. We contacted your dentist and were informed that they were placed in a large green container. We apologize for this inconvenience. To show this, we have opted to give your claim (a dollar per tooth) in collectable coins versus quarters or dollar bills.

*Sorry for this,
